PRESIDENT HAS RUSS PROPOSAL FOR ARMISTICE

Washington, November 26 — The Bolshevik proposal for an armistice and universal peace is officially before President Wilson today. The peace offer arrived over Sunday from Ambassador Francis, Petrograd.

It will be considered carefully by President Wilson and by Secretary of State Lansing.

Whether it will be answered is still undecided. An answer might be construed as recognition of the Bolsheviks as the de facto government, and this matter will be one of the chief points in determining America's course.

In any event this government will not accept an armistice, and it has no intention of negotiating for peace until its aim of safety for world democracy is accomplished, the State Department indicated today.

If answer is given, it will endeavor probably to solidify the Russian people behind the war and to shatter further efforts at an armistice or a separate peace which might aid Germany.

The Bolshevik control is rapidly extending to the Russian army and navy, according to diplomatic officials here today.

GERMANY TRIES TO WIN JAPAN

Amsterdam, November 26 — Germany has again attempted to detach Japan from the allies and again been refused, according to word reaching here today.

It was reported the Germans offered Kiaochow to Japan and announced their willingness to discuss the future of occupied islands in the Pacific as the price of Japan's retirement from the war.

CONGRESSMEN ARE HOME

An Atlantic Port, November 26 — The party of American Congressmen, members of which had narrow escapes from death or injury when they came under German machine gun fire recently while visiting the trenches on the British front in France, returned home on an American steamship which arrived here today.

DIED AT COUNTY INFIRMARY

Mr. George Kirk, aged 68 years, died at the County Infirmary this morning at 5:30 o'clock. The burial will be in the infirmary burying ground tomorrow afternoon at 2 o'clock.

Master Commissioner A. G. Sulser sold at the Courthouse door yesterday the property of the late Maria Wilson, in the Sixth Ward, to Mrs. Martha Dryden for $310.

The uncalled for checks for premiums and exhibits left at the Liberty Warehouse can be had at the Chamber of Commerce.

ALLIED HELP

For Italy Arrives—Peril of Piave Line Thought Passed With the Arrival of Help.

Rome, November 26—Apparently the peril of the Italian troops guarding the Piave line and the hill country in northern Italy against the Teutonic allies is at an end. Large numbers of British and French reinforcements—infantry and artillery—at last have arrived upon the scene after days of anxious waiting in which the Italians have borne the brunt of terrific fighting on both fronts solely on their own shoulders and kept back the enemy from a further invasion of the Venetian plain.

Although faced everywhere by superior numbers of men and gun power, the Italians have valiantly defended every foot of ground in the hills and along the Piave, and in the former region in recent days actually have taken the offensive against the invaders and pushed them back from strategic points of vantage they had gained under terrific sacrifices in lives.

For eight days the allied reinforcements marched to the rescue bringing along with them large numbers of guns and huge supplies. All the troops are declared to be in fine fettle and eager to test their strength against the enemy.

Just where the British and French forces will be thrown into the fight has not been made known, but doubtless large numbers of them will be used to strengthen the Italian front on the north from Lake Garda eastward to the Piave, where the Austro-Germans have been making their strongest efforts to pierce the Italian line.

British Troops Take Still More Ground

British Headquarters in France, November 26—The British today were in possession of still more enemy trench defenses in the region of Bullecourt, the Germans having been forced to withdraw somewhat at several points to re-arrange their positions. A considerable number of German communication trenches had become untenable as a result of the British drive into the enemy front lines last week, and the Germans abandoned these for more favorable ground.

Elsewhere along the new battle front no change in the situation has been reported. Hard fighting still continues for the possession of Bourlon village, with the British holding the upper hand.

There was considerable artillery activity during the night, but, generally speaking, things were quiet. Notwithstanding the heavy rainfall of the ground is firm and favorable for operations.

VOGEL'S MINSTRELS COMING

John W. Vogel's Big City Minstrels will be at the Washington Theater on December 6 with the big funmakers Tommy Donnelly and Nick Glynn. Mr. Thomas M. Russell, manager of the Washington Opera House, recently received the following letter from Mr. Vogel, congratulating him on his election as Mayor.

Wynethville, Va., Nov. 20, 1917.
Mr. Tom M. Russell, Manager.

Dear Tom:—I am in receipt of yours bearing date of 17th inst., and wish to offer my congratulations on your success as a politician.

Well, hope you meet with all kinds of success in the chair, but as a rule it is a thankless position, as it is impossible to please all kinds and classes. Trusting this will find you enjoying the best of health and hoping to be with you on the 6th, I am,
Yours truly,
JOHN W. VOGEL.

NIGHT SCHOOL

The night school will probably open next week in the high school building. There must be a sufficient number enrolled to justify the use of the above building.

If you care to better your position or to secure an increase in your present salary enroll now and prepare yourself so that you can command more.

The government needs help in all branches of stenographic and clerical work. Why not prepare to work for Uncle Sam?
Telephone Superintendent Caplinger if interested.

INMATES RESCUED WHEN LAKE- LAND HOSPITAL BURNS

Louisville, Ky., November 26 — Twenty-nine inmates of the Central State Hospital for the Insane, at Lakeland, were rescued in their night clothes from a fire in the tuberculosis hospital building at 5 o'clock this morning. Guards of the institution acted heroically in the work of rescue.

The building, a one-story frame structure, was burned to the ground, despite great efforts of the fire department of the institution. The work of rescue to make great headway. Fifteen men and fourteen women were carried out of the burning building. A number of these were seriously ill and many suffered from exposure while being carried to other dormitories.

A negro attendant, in a building directly opposite, discovered the blaze and sounded the alarm. A spark from the furnace is believed to have caused the blaze.

Attaches at the institution estimate the loss at $18,000.

Miss Amella Tolle has returned to her home in Manchester, Ohio, after a short visit with Misses Fannie and Frances Thomas of Walnut street.

SOLDIERS WILL STAY IN CAMPS ON CHRISTMAS

Washington, November 26—There will be no general Christmas furlough for the boys in the cantonments and training camps.

Parents and soldiers should adjust their Christmas plans on this basis.

A story, the source of which the War Department has been unable to locate, has been widely circulated to the effect that both officers and men would be given general furlough over Christmas week.

It is believed this story is part of deliberate pro-German propaganda, circulated to boost hopes of both soldiers and their relatives and friends, with the idea that discontent and dissatisfaction would follow when it developed there would be no Christmas furlough.

The War Department will go the limit in attempting to make the Christmas holidays a bright period in training camp life.

Transportation is in itself a barrier to any general furlough plan, as railroads had the work of transporting men to the camps spread out over several weeks in order that the heavy traffic could be handled.

To attempt to handle this soldier traffic two ways—from camp to home and back to camp—during the crowded Christmas week, would be impossible.

Then to attempt a general Christmas furlough would disrupt the entire schedule of training and of movements of troops to France for at least two weeks at a time when every day is valuable.

REV. HUNT TELLS OF OHIO EDUCATIONAL CAMPAIGN

Rev. S. K. Hunt, pastor of the Third Street M. E. Church, who is now assisting in the All-Ohio Educational Campaign, writes to a friend here that he is getting started in his work and held his first group rally Monday. Following is an extract from his letter:

"We have an inspiring task, hard and worthy of our very best effort. This is our first opportunity to 'go over the top,' so we must not fail. I am now in the largest conference in Methodism. It is stimulating to go up against a big thing with a big thing back of you. I am reminded of the old question, 'If an irresistible force should come up against an immovable body what would happen?' We hope that our force is 'irresistible,' and that the obstacle is not immovable, though it is confessedly large. I can hardly yet realize that I am lined up in a drive for so large an amount as $2,900,000."
